IN-GAME CARD MANAGEMENT

Unless otherwise stated, all match rules will follow FIFA rules. Game suspensions are to be imposed at the next league match. Below are the guidelines for Yellow Card and Red Card procedures:

2 Yellow Cards Given in One Game

- Player is to be removed from the match and sent off the sideline to begin serving a one game suspension;
- One game suspension is to be imposed on the next league match;
- The suspended player may sit on the bench with their team while suspended at the next match, but MUST be in plain clothing so it is clear they are not an eligible player.

Straight Red Card Given

- Player is to be removed from the match and sent off the sideline to begin serving a one game suspension;
- One game suspension is to be imposed on the next league match;
- The suspended player may sit on the bench with their team while suspended at the next match, but MUST be in plain clothing so it is clear they are not an eligible player.
- Further disciplinary action may be levied at the discretion of the UCL.
